

Shuo Yan

700 S Gregory Street
Urbana, IL 61801
(217) 979-8275
shuoy2@illinois.edu

RESEARCH

BEAST Lab, University of Illinois at Urbana Champaign — research assistant

February 2020 - PRESENT

Focus on a project on how emotion affects reasoning, especially about people with depression inclinations.

Work 6 hours a week on conducting experiments on participants and analyzing data gathered from experiments, as well as reading academic papers outside of the lab.

Experience

Shell Mental Support Club, University of Illinois at Urbana Champaign

September 2019 - Present

Use various methods such as making posters and writing ads to encourage Chinese international students in University of Illinois to seek mental support provided by fellow group members.

Home for Children With ADHD, Ningbo, China — Teacher's Assistant

June 2017 - August 2019

Assist children to finish projects such as making hand crafts and drawing.

Communicate with teachers and parents to make sure that classes are scheduled and children would attend

CS125: Introduction to Computer Science, University of Illinois at Urbana Champaign — Class Assistant

January 2018 - May 2018

Spend 4 hours a week assisting students taking CS125 to finish their homework, as well as answering questions related to JAVA and programming methods.

SKILLS

Java, C++, R

RELATED COURSES

PSYC238: Psychopathology and Problems in Living

LANGUAGES

English

Chinese (Mandarin)

Education

University of Illinois at Urbana Champaign

Bachelor's degree in

Statistics

Expect to graduate in May, 2022

GPA: 3.96